Cindi McMenamin

Cindi McMenamin is an award-winning writer and speaker helping women discover "strength for the soul." Married to a Pastor and mother of a teen daughter, she has more than 20 years experience ministering to women and inspiring them to let God meet their emotional needs, grow stronger and pursue their dreams with boldness.

Cindi is the author of When Women Walk Alone (over 100,000 copies sold), she has published over 10 books and encourages women by speaking nationwide at churches and Christian organizations. A former newspaper reporter, Cindi has made numerous radio and TV appearances. Cindi brings her heart for women and her God-breathed message to us as we reach to restore our souls in 2012.

New to Women's Advance: a Saturday Morning Hour where you can choose to attend a selection of workshops on a first come-first served basis. Topics for the workshops to be announced. Please check our web site, ask at your church's registration table or when calling to register.

Worship

Worship will be led by a wonderful blend of sisters in Christ leading us in joyful, heartfelt praise. We look forward to a refreshing time to lift our hearts and pour out our worship to the King at His wonderful throne of Grace.

Special Music

Le Anne Pyzer will minister to us with specially chosen songs and her beautiful voice!

Introducing Souljourners

A variety of monologues and vignettes will be performed to remind us that no matter the circumstance God's grace, help, and restorative power are available to us if we let "Jesus Take the Wheel."

Ministry Faire

This year's Ministry Faire will give each one the chance to reach out and restore another's soul. We want to know how you're sharing the love of Jesus Christ with those in your sphere of influence, so we can do the same with the people in ours. If you &/or your church have a successful outreach or in-house ministry, please contact Susan to register for the Ministry Faire, (707) 987-0532 or go to the Women's Advance web site.

Community Outreach

Rebecca Love will be sharing the ministries of Our Working Hands/Kids for the Kingdom.

Our Working Hands is a non-profit enabling Kenyan women to sell their beautiful handmade baskets and other crafts so that they may have a sustainable living in which to feed and educate their children. With the help of this ministry they learn how to run their own business to sustain and support their families. All proceeds received from the sale of their work goes back to their business.

Our Working Hands also partners with Kids for the Kingdom, a non-profit organization in Graton, California which is working to transform the conditions and spiritual lives of children and families—especially in third world countries, war-torn nations, and disaster sites around the world and in the USA—so that they can transform their nation for Christ. We will be taking up an offering to help Our Working Hands/Kids for the Kingdom.
